

Sermon Notes

“Mercy!”
Luke 6:27-36

Rev. Dr. Andrew Ross
November 13, 2016

Jesus doesn't want you to be _____.

Jesus wants you to be _____.

Going beyond _____.

These folks can be called:

Going beyond _____.

These folks can be called:

Giving as a _____.

These folks can be called:

2450 East Fort Lowell Road, Tucson, AZ 85719
520-327-7121

Digging Deeper this Week

November 13, 2016

Mercy! - Luke 6:27-36

Use this sheet as a study guide for personal study, together with your family, friends, or Connect Group.

Connect – Open with prayer, asking God to help you to grow in your relationship with God, your relationships with each other as you study God’s Word. Use these or modify as needed.

- Icebreaker: Saturday cartoons as a child: Who was a favorite good guy? Who was a favorite bad guy?
- Check in: What “God-sighting” (seeing God in action) did you have this week? How did God help you follow through on your commitments this past week?

Grow – Enjoy a time of Bible reading and reflection together.

- Have someone read Luke 6:27-36 out loud.
- What seems to strike you in this passage, as Jesus teaches?
- What is Jesus doing here with the big fuzzy concept called “love”? How does he sharpen it? Magnify it?
- How would you see yourself living this out ... in your real world? Is that do-able? What would be the results if you did?
- What does this teach you about God?
- How does this word from God speak to you, about who you are?

Serve – Commit to actions you will take this week in following Jesus and serving others. This week...

- I feel led to pray for:
- I sense God is preparing me to:
- I can commit to:

Pray – Share and pray together before departing.

- My greatest joy that I’m thankful for is:
- My deepest concern that I request prayer for is: